KNOWLEDGE SHARING
IN SUPPORT OF CAPACITY DEVELOPMENT
FOR AGRICULTURAL INNOVATION

WHAT IS IT?

TAPipedia is an information sharing portal where you can access and share resources related to capacity development for agricultural innovation, such as good practices, innovation outputs, success stories and lessons learned. A special focus is given to facilitation, learning and documentation to enable innovation.

WHAT ELSE?

In TAPipedia you also find an interactive version of the TAP Common Framework, which provides guidance to better understand the architecture of agricultural innovation systems, to assess capacity development needs and to plan, implement, monitor and evaluate capacity development interventions.

TAPipedia is available in English, French and Spanish
